

FPCBP CAREER PANEL

The FPCBP, in association with the Portuguese Associations at York University , Ryerson University and the University of Toronto would like to cordially invite you to attend our first ever CAREER PANEL.

This is an unprecedented opportunity for students of the Portuguese community to hear successful professionals of Portuguese descent talk about their careers and how they got to where they are today.

The panel discussion will be followed by a question & answer period and a reception where students and professionals can mix & mingle.
