FPCBP has just concluded its III Annual Essay Contest to commemorate Portuguese History and Heritage Month (as proclaimed by the Ontario Legislature and more recently, Toronto City Council). The contest ran during the month of May and was open to all Ontario students of Portuguese descent in grades 7 to 12. Entries were based on the topic “What my Portuguese heritage means to me”.

Michael Ignatieff, Member of Parliament for the Ontario riding of Etobicoke-Lakeshore will be this year's Keynote speaker. Michael Ignatieff is a Canadian writer, journalist and world renowned scholar. He is internationally recognized as one of the world's foremost experts on human rights, democracy, and international affairs. Widely respected throughout the international community, he has advised governments and world leaders, and inspired students at leading universities around the globe.
